1. Organization and Basis of Presentation

Description of Business

The Providence Service Corporation (“we”, the “Company” or “Providence”), through its subsidiaries and other companies in which it owns interests, is primarily engaged in the provision of healthcare and workforce development services for public and private sector entities seeking to control costs and promote positive outcomes. The subsidiaries and other companies in which the Company holds interests comprise the following segments:

- Non-Emergency Transportation Services (“NET Services”) – Nationwide provider of non-emergency medical transportation programs for state governments and managed care organizations.
- Workforce Development Services (“WD Services”) – Global provider of employment preparation and placement and legal offender rehabilitation services to eligible participants of government sponsored programs.
- Matrix Investment – Minority interest in nationwide provider of in-home care optimization and management solutions, including comprehensive health assessments, to members of managed care organizations, accounted for as an equity method investment.

Basis of Presentation

The Company follows accounting standards set by the Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”). The FASB establishes accounting principles generally accepted in the United States (“GAAP”). Rules and interpretive releases of the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) under authority of federal securities laws are also sources of authoritative GAAP for SEC registrants. References to GAAP issued by the FASB in these footnotes are to the FASB Accounting Standards Codification (“ASC”), which serves as the single source of authoritative non-SEC accounting and reporting standards to be applied by non-governmental entities. All amounts are presented in United States (“U.S.”) dollars, unless otherwise noted.

The Company’s unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with GAAP for interim financial information, and with the instructions to Form 10-Q and Article 10 of Regulation S-X. Accordingly, they do not include all the information and disclosures required by GAAP for complete financial statements. In the opinion of management, all adjustments considered necessary for the fair presentation of the results of the interim periods have been included.

The Company has made estimates relating to the reporting of assets and liabilities, revenues and expenses and certain disclosures to prepare these unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements in conformity with GAAP. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Operating results for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2017 are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2017. Management has evaluated events and transactions that occurred after the balance sheet date and through the date these unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements were filed, and considered the effect of such events in the preparation of these unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements.

The condensed consolidated balance sheet at December 31, 2016 has been derived from the audited financial statements at that date, but does not include all the information and footnotes required by GAAP for complete financial statements. The unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements contained herein should be read in conjunction with the audited financial statements and notes included in the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2016.

The Company holds investments that are accounted for using the equity method. The Company does not control the decision-making process or business management practices of these affiliates. While the Company has access to certain information and performs certain procedures to review the reasonableness of information, the Company relies on management of these affiliates to provide accurate financial information prepared in accordance with GAAP. The Company receives audit reports relating to such financial information from the affiliates’ independent auditors on an annual basis. The Company is not aware of any errors in or possible misstatements of the financial information provided by its equity affiliates that would have a material effect on the Company’s condensed consolidated financial statements.

Reclassifications

We have reclassified certain amounts relating to our prior period results to conform to our current period presentation. On October 19, 2016, affiliates of Frazier Healthcare Partners purchased a 53.2% equity interest in CCHN Group Holdings, Inc. and its subsidiaries (“Matrix”) with Providence retaining a 46.8% equity interest (the “Matrix Transaction”). Prior to the closing of the Matrix Transaction, the financial results of Matrix were included in the Company’s Health Assessment Services (“HA Services”) segment. Operating results for this segment are reported as discontinued operations, net of tax in the condensed consolidated statements of income for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2016. See Note 13, Discontinued Operations, for further information. See Note 2, Significant Accounting Policies and Recent Accounting Pronouncements, for additional information on other reclassifications.

2. Significant Accounting Policies and Recent Accounting Pronouncements

The Company adopted the following accounting pronouncements during the nine months ended September 30, 2017:

In November 2015, the FASB issued Accounting Standards Update (“ASU”) No. 2015-17, Income Taxes (Topic 740): Balance Sheet Classification of Deferred Taxes (“ASU 2015-17”), which changes how deferred taxes are classified on organizations’ balance sheets. The ASU eliminates the current requirement for organizations to present deferred tax liabilities and assets as current and noncurrent in a classified balance sheet. Instead, organizations will be required to classify all deferred tax assets and liabilities as noncurrent. The amendments apply to all organizations that present a classified balance sheet. For public companies, the amendments are effective for financial statements issued for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2016, and interim periods within those annual periods. The Company adopted ASU 2015-17 retrospectively on January 1, 2017, which resulted in the reclassification of the December 31, 2016 deferred tax assets-current balance of $6,825 and non-current deferred tax assets of $2,493 to long-term deferred tax liabilities in the amount of $9,318.

In March 2016, the FASB issued ASU No. 2016-07, Investments - Equity Method and Joint Ventures (Topic 323): Simplifying the Transition to the Equity Method of Accounting (“ASU 2016-07”). ASU 2016-07 eliminates the requirement that when an investment qualifies for use of the equity method as a result of an increase in the level of ownership interest or degree of influence, an investor must adjust the investment, results of operations, and retained earnings retroactively on a step-by-step basis as if the equity method had been in effect during all previous periods that the investment had been held. ASU 2016-07 instead specifies that the investor should add the cost of acquiring the additional interest in the investee to the current basis of the investor’s previously held interest and apply the equity method of accounting as of the date the investment became qualified for equity method accounting. ASU 2016-07 is effective for all entities for fiscal years, and interim periods within those fiscal years, beginning after December 15, 2016 and should be applied prospectively. The Company adopted ASU 2016-07 on January 1, 2017. The adoption of ASU 2016-07 had no impact on the Company’s financial statements or disclosures.

In March 2016, the FASB issued ASU No. 2016-09, Compensation - Stock Compensation (Topic 718): Improvements to Employee Share-Based Payment Accounting (“ASU 2016-09”). ASU 2016-09 is intended to improve the accounting for employee share-based payments and affect all organizations that issue share-based payment awards to their employees. Several aspects of the accounting for share-based payment award transactions are simplified, including income tax consequences, classification of awards as either equity or liabilities and classification in the statement of cash flows. For public companies, the amendments are effective for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2016, and interim periods within those annual periods. The Company adopted ASU 2016-09 on January 1, 2017, and elected to recognize forfeitures as they occur. As a result, the Company recorded a cumulative effect adjustment of $850 to retained earnings as of January 1, 2017. Upon adoption, all excess tax benefits and tax deficiencies related to employee share-based payments are recognized through income tax expense prospectively. For the three and nine months ended September 30, 2017, the Company recorded excess tax deficiencies of $261 and $148, respectively, as an increase to the provision for income taxes. The Company excluded the related tax benefits when applying the treasury stock method for computing diluted shares outstanding on a prospective basis resulting in a decrease in diluted weighted average shares outstanding of 4,779 and 7,451 shares, respectively, for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2017.

The adoption of ASU 2016-09 subjects our tax rate to quarterly volatility from the effects of stock award exercises and vesting activities, including the adverse impact on our income tax provision for awards which result in a tax deduction less than the amount recorded for financial reporting purposes based upon the fair value of the award at the grant date. For example, no shares will be distributed under the Company’s 2015 Holding Company LTI Program (the “HoldCo LTIP”) unless the volume weighted average of Providence’s stock price over a 90-day period ending on December 31, 2017 exceeds $56.79. If this market condition is not satisfied, a significant tax shortfall will result, causing an adverse impact on our tax provision.

The Company elected to apply the change in classification of cash flows resulting from excess tax benefits or deficiencies on a retrospective basis. This resulted in an increase in cash flows provided by operating activities of $276 and an increase of $276 in cash flows used in financing activities in the condensed consolidated statement of cash flows for the nine months ended September 30, 2016. Additionally, ASU 2016-09 requires that employee taxes paid when an employer withholds shares for tax-withholding purposes be reported as financing activities in the consolidated statements of cash flows, which is how the Company has historically classified these amounts.

In January 2017, the FASB issued ASU No. 2017-01, Business Combinations (Topic 805): Clarifying the Definition of a Business (“ASU 2017-01”). ASU 2017-01 clarifies the definition of a business with the objective of adding guidance to assist entities with evaluating whether transactions should be accounted for as acquisitions (or disposals) of assets or businesses. The definition of a business affects many areas of accounting including acquisitions, disposals, goodwill, and consolidation. ASU 2017-01 is effective for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2017, including interim periods within those periods. The Company adopted ASU 2017-01 on April 1, 2017. The adoption of ASU 2017-01 had no impact on the Company’s financial statements or disclosures.

In January 2017, the FASB issued ASU No. 2017-04, Intangibles-Goodwill and Other (Topic 350): Simplifying the Test for Goodwill Impairment (“ASU 2017-04”). ASU 2017-04 removes the requirement to compare the implied fair value of goodwill with its carrying amount as part of step two of the goodwill impairment test. As a result, under ASU 2017-04, an entity should perform its annual, or interim, goodwill impairment test by comparing the fair value of a reporting unit with its carrying amount and should recognize an impairment charge for the amount by which the carrying amount exceeds the reporting unit’s fair value; however, the impairment loss recognized should not exceed the total amount of goodwill allocated to that reporting unit. This guidance is effective prospectively for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2019. Early adoption is permitted for interim or annual goodwill impairment tests performed after January 1, 2017. The Company adopted ASU 2017-04 on April 1, 2017. The adoption of ASU 2017-04 had no impact on the Company’s financial statements or disclosures.

Updates to the recent accounting pronouncements as disclosed in the Company’s Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2016 are as follows:

In May 2014, the FASB issued ASU No. 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Topic 606) (“ASU 2014-09”). ASU 2014-09 introduced FASB Accounting Standards Codification Topic 606 (“ASC 606”), which will replace most currently applicable existing revenue recognition guidance and is intended to improve and converge with international standards the financial reporting requirements for revenue from contracts with customers. The core principle of ASU 2014-09 is that an entity should recognize revenue for the transfer of goods or services equal to the amount that it expects to be entitled to receive for those goods or services. ASU 2014-09 also requires additional disclosures about the nature, timing and uncertainty of revenue and cash flows arising from customer contracts, including significant judgments and changes in judgments. ASU 2014-09 allows for adoption either on a full retrospective basis to each prior reporting period presented or on a modified retrospective basis with the cumulative effect of initially applying the new guidance recognized at the date of initial application, which will be effective for the Company beginning January 1, 2018.

The Company has developed an adoption plan, assembled a cross-functional project team and is in the process of assessing the impacts of applying ASC 606 to the Company’s financial statements, information systems and internal controls. The Company has elected to adopt ASU 2014-09 using the modified retrospective method. Additionally, the Company has performed detailed reviews of a significant number of its existing contracts with customers. These reviews have focused on several key considerations which could impact the Company’s accounting and reporting under the new standard:

- the effect of specified clauses on the term of many of the Company’s contracts with customers;
- the nature of the promises in many of the Company’s contracts with customers to perform integrated services over a period of time;
- whether and how much variable consideration to include when determining the transaction prices for its contracts with customers;
- whether any of the Company’s customer contracts require performance over a series of distinct service periods and the impact on determining and allocating the transaction price; and
- the manner in which the Company will measure its progress towards fully satisfying its performance obligations, including a determination of whether the Company may be able to use certain practical expedients.

These reviews are substantially complete for NET Services and are ongoing for WD Services. The Company expects little to no impact within NET Services from the adoption of ASU 2014-09, and is implementing controls and process changes needed to apply ASC 606. Within WD Services, the Company expects certain amounts of variable consideration related to contingent revenue will be accelerated. Such amounts were previously deferred until the final resolution of the contingency. Management’s assessment is ongoing; however, management does not believe the impact of ASC 606 on its financial statements will be significant based on the procedures performed to date.

In January 2017, the FASB issued ASU No. 2017-03, Accounting Changes and Error Corrections (Topic 250) and Investments - Equity Method and Joint Ventures (Topic 323) (“ASU 2017-03”). ASU 2017-03 expands required qualitative disclosures when registrants cannot reasonably estimate the impact that adoption of an ASU will have on the financial statements. Such qualitative disclosures would include a comparison of the registrant’s new accounting policies, if determined, to current accounting policies, a description of the status of the registrant’s process to implement the new standard and a description of the significant implementation matters yet to be addressed by the registrant. Other than enhancements to the qualitative disclosures regarding future adoption of new ASUs, adoption of the provisions of this standard is not expected to have any impact on the Company’s consolidated financial statements.

In May 2017, the FASB issued ASU No. 2017-09, Compensation—Stock Compensation (Topic 718): Scope of Modification Accounting (“ASU 2017-09”). ASU 2017-09 provides guidance about which changes to the terms of a share-based payment award should be accounted for as a modification. A change to an award should be accounted for as a modification unless the fair value of the modified award is the same as the original award, the vesting conditions do not change, and the classification as an equity or liability instrument does not change. This guidance is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2017. Early adoption is permitted. The adoption of ASU 2017-09 is not expected to have a material impact on the Company’s consolidated financial statements.

There were no other significant updates to the new accounting guidance not yet adopted by the Company as disclosed in its Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2016.

6. Restructuring and Related Reorganization Costs

WD Services has three redundancy programs. Two redundancy plans were approved in 2015 and have been substantially completed; a plan related to the termination of employees delivering services under an offender rehabilitation program ("Offender Rehabilitation Program") and a plan related to the termination of employees delivering services under the Company's employability and skills training programs and certain other employees in the United Kingdom ("UK Restructuring Program"). In addition, a redundancy plan related to the termination of employees as part of a value enhancement project ("Ingeus Futures Program") to better align costs at Ingeus with revenue and to improve overall operating performance was approved in 2016. The Company recorded severance and related charges of $1,117 and $4,741 during the nine months ended September 30, 2017 and 2016, respectively, relating to the termination benefits for employee groups and specifically identified employees impacted by these plans. The severance charges incurred are recorded as "Service expense" in the accompanying condensed consolidated statements of income.

The initial estimate of severance and related charges for the plans was based upon the employee groups impacted, average salary and benefits, and redundancy benefits pursuant to the existing policies. Additional charges above the initial estimates were incurred for the redundancy plans during the nine months ended September 30, 2017 and 2016 related to the actualization of termination benefits for specifically identified employees impacted under these plans, as well as an increase in the number of individuals impacted by these plans. The final identification of the employees impacted by each program is subject to customary consultation procedures.

8. Stock-Based Compensation and Similar Arrangements

The Company provides stock-based compensation to employees and non-employee directors under the Company's 2006 Long-Term Incentive Plan ("2006 Plan"). Typical awards issued under this plan include stock option awards, restricted stock awards ("RSAs") and performance based restricted stock units ("PRSUs"). In addition, the Company has a long-term incentive plan designed to provide long-term performance based awards to certain executive officers of the Company which also falls under the 2006 Plan.

The following table reflects the amount of stock-based compensation, for share settled awards, recorded in each financial statement line item for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2017 and 2016:

	Three months ended September 30,		Nine months ended September 30,
	2017	2016	2017	2016
Service expense	$ 131	$ 100	$ 365	$ 280
General and administrative expense	1,434	1,135	4,221	2,858
Equity in net loss of investees	10	—	50	—
Discontinued operations, net of tax	—	22	—	66
Total stock-based compensation	$ 1,575	$ 1,257	$ 4,636	$ 3,204

Stock-based compensation, for share settled awards, includes $1,014 and $3,098 for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2017, respectively, related to the HoldCo LTIP. Stock-based compensation, for share settled awards, includes $921 and $2,383 for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2016, respectively, related to the HoldCo LTIP. No shares will be distributed under the HoldCo LTIP unless the volume weighted average of Providence's stock price over a 90-day period ending on December 31, 2017 is greater than $56.79.

At September 30, 2017, the Company had 300,831 stock options outstanding with a weighted-average exercise price of $37.97. The Company also had 71,193 shares of unvested RSAs outstanding at September 30, 2017 with a weighted-average grant date fair value of $44.33 and 18,298 unvested PRSUs outstanding.

The Company also grants stock equivalent unit awards ("SEUs") and stock option equivalent units that are cash settled awards and are not included as part of the 2006 Plan. During the three and nine months ended September 30, 2017, respectively, the Company recorded $380 and $1,611 of stock-based compensation expense for cash settled awards. During the three and nine months ended September 30, 2016, respectively, the Company recorded $422 and $305 of stock-based compensation expense for cash settled awards. The expense and benefit for cash settled awards is included as "General and administrative expense" in the accompanying condensed consolidated statements of income. As the awards are cash settled, a significant amount of the expense recorded for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2017 and 2016 is attributable to the Company's increase or decrease in stock price from the previous reporting period. The liability for unexercised cash settled share-based payment awards of $3,168 and $1,764 at September 30, 2017 and December 31, 2016, respectively, are reflected in "Accrued expenses" in the condensed consolidated balance sheets. At September 30, 2017, the Company had 6,671 SEUs and 200,000 stock option equivalent units outstanding.

The Company also provides cash settled long-term incentive plans for executive management and key employees of its operating segments. During the three months ended June 30, 2017, the Company revised the structure of the NET Services long-term incentive plan. As a result, the Company finalized the amount payable under the plan at $2,956. The total value will be paid to the awarded participants per the terms of the original agreement and thus the remaining unamortized expense relating to this plan continues to be recognized over the remaining service period. As of September 30, 2017, unamortized compensation expense is $696. For the three and nine months ended September 30, 2017, expenses of $274 and $419, respectively, are included as "Service expense" in the condensed consolidated statements of income related to these plans. For the three and nine months ended September 30, 2016, $1,157 and $3,151, respectively, of expense are included as "Service expense" in the condensed consolidated statements of income related to these plans. At September 30, 2017, the liability for long-term incentive plans of the Company's operating segments of $2,260 is reflected in "Accrued expenses" and "Other long-term liabilities" in the condensed consolidated balance sheet. At December 31, 2016, the liability for long-term incentive plans of the Company's operating segments of $1,841 is reflected in "Other long-term liabilities" in the condensed consolidated balance sheet.

9. Earnings Per Share

Numerator:
Net income attributable to Providence	$ 14,853	$ 650	$ 14,441	$ 7,508
Less dividends on convertible preferred stock	(1,114)	(1,111)	(3,305)	(3,309)
Less income allocated to participating securities	(1,777)	(284)	(2,209)	(502)
Net income (loss) available to common stockholders	$ 11,962	$ (745)	$ 8,927	$ 3,697

Diluted earnings (loss) per share:
Continuing operations	$ 0.88	$ 0.14	$ 1.09	$ 0.23

	$ 0.88	$ (0.05)	$ 0.65	$ 0.25

Income allocated to participating securities is calculated by allocating a portion of net income attributable to Providence, less dividends on convertible stock, to the convertible preferred stockholders on a pro-rata as converted basis; however, the convertible preferred stockholders are not allocated losses.

The following weighted average shares were not included in the computation of diluted earnings per share as the effect of their inclusion would have been anti-dilutive:

	Three months ended September 30,		Nine months ended September 30,
	2017	2016	2017	2016
Stock options to purchase common stock	33,890	33,957	56,528	33,957
Convertible preferred stock	803,285	803,398	803,360	803,457

10. Income Taxes

The Company's effective tax rate from continuing operations for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2017 was 16.7% and 28.8%, respectively. The Company's effective tax rate from continuing operations for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2016 was 55.6% and 64.9%, respectively. The effective tax rates for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2016 exceeded the U.S. federal statutory rate of 35% primarily due to foreign net operating losses (including equity investment losses in certain of the periods) for which the future income tax benefit currently cannot be recognized, losses in foreign jurisdictions with tax rates lower than the U.S. rate of 35%, state income taxes and certain non-deductible expenses. Foreign net operating losses for which no tax benefit can be provided were higher in 2016 versus 2017 resulting in a decrease in the effective tax rate from 2016 to 2017. Additionally, for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2017, there was no provision for income taxes related to the gain on sale of equity investment of $12,606 due to the substantial difference in tax basis versus book basis in the investment.

The Company recorded excess tax deficiencies for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2017 of $261 and $148, respectively, which increased the provision for income taxes. These excess tax deficiencies were a result of applying the guidance in ASU 2016-09 as further discussed in Note 2, Significant Accounting Policies and Recent Accounting Pronouncements.

The adoption of ASU 2016-09 subjects our tax rate to quarterly volatility from the effects of stock award exercises and vesting activities, including the adverse impact on our income tax provision for awards which result in a tax deduction less than the amount recorded for financial reporting purposes based upon the fair value of the award at the grant date. For example, no shares will be distributed under the HoldCo LTIP unless the volume weighted average of Providence's stock price over a 90-day period ending on December 31, 2017 exceeds $56.79. If this market condition is not satisfied, a significant tax shortfall will result, causing an adverse impact on our tax provision.

11. Commitments and Contingencies

Legal proceedings

On June 15, 2015, a putative stockholder class action derivative complaint was filed in the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware (the "Court"), captioned Haverhill Retirement System v. Kerley et al., C.A. No. 11149-VCL ("Haverhill Litigation").

On September 28, 2017, the Court approved a proposed settlement agreement among the parties that provides for a settlement amount of $10,000 less plaintiff's legal fees and expenses (the "Settlement Amount"), with 75% of the Settlement Amount to be paid to the Company and 25% of the Settlement Amount to be paid to holders of the Company's common stock other than certain excluded parties. The Company expects to receive a payment of approximately $5,000. As this amount is considered a gain contingency, the Company has not recorded a receivable for this amount as of September 30, 2017.

For further information regarding this legal proceeding please see Note 19, Commitments and Contingencies, in the audited consolidated financial statements included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2016 and Note 11, Commitments and Contingencies, in the unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements included in the Company's Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the periods ended March 31, 2017 and June 30, 2017.

In addition to the matter described above, in the ordinary course of business, the Company is a party to various lawsuits. Management does not expect these lawsuits to have a material impact on the liquidity, results of operations, or financial condition of Providence.

Indemnifications related to Haverhill Litigation

The Company completed a rights offering on February 5, 2015 (the “Rights Offering”) providing all of the Company’s existing common stockholders the non-transferable right to purchase their pro rata share of $65,500 of convertible preferred stock at a price equal to $100.00 per share (“Preferred Stock”). Stockholders exercised subscription rights to purchase 130,884 shares of the Company’s Preferred Stock. Pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Standby Purchase Agreement (the “Standby Purchase Agreement”) between Coliseum Capital Partners, L.P., Coliseum Capital Partners II, L.P., Coliseum Capital Co-Invest, L.P. and Blackwell Partners, LLC (collectively, the “Standby Purchasers”) and the Company, the remaining 524,116 shares of the Company’s Preferred Stock were purchased by the Standby Purchasers at the $100.00 per share subscription price. The Company has indemnified the Standby Purchasers from and against any and all losses, claims, damages, expenses and liabilities relating to or arising out of (i) any breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or undertaking made by or on behalf of the Company in the Standby Purchase Agreement and (ii) the transactions contemplated by the Standby Purchase Agreement and the 14.0% Unsecured Subordinated Note in aggregate principal amount of $65,500, except to the extent that any such losses, claims, damages, expenses and liabilities are attributable to the gross negligence, willful misconduct or fraud of such Standby Purchaser.

The Company has also indemnified other third parties from and against any and all losses, claims, damages, expenses and liabilities arising out of or in connection with the Company’s acquisition of CCHN Group Holdings, Inc. (operating under the tradename Matrix, and formerly included in our HA Services segment) in October 2014 and related financing commitments, except to the extent that any such losses, claims, damages, expenses and liabilities are found in a final, non-appealable judgment by a court of competent jurisdiction to have resulted from the gross negligence, bad faith or willful misconduct of such third parties, or a material breach of such third parties’ obligations under the related agreements.

The Company recorded $21 and $296 of such indemnified legal expenses related to the Haverhill Litigation during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2017, respectively, and $791 and $935 of such indemnified legal expenses during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2016, respectively, which is included in “General and administrative expenses” in the condensed consolidated statements of income. Of these amounts, $23 and $231 for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2017, respectively, and $360 and $504 for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2016, respectively, were indemnified legal expenses of related parties. Other legal expenses of the Company related to the Haverhill Litigation are covered under the Company’s insurance policies, subject to applicable deductibles and customary review of the expenses by the carrier. The Company recognized related benefit of $3 and expense of $8 for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2017, respectively, and related expense of $107 for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2016. While the carrier typically remits payment directly to the respective law firm, the Company accrues for the cost and records a corresponding receivable for the amount to be paid by the carrier. The Company has recognized an insurance receivable of $903 and $1,645 in “Other receivables” in the condensed consolidated balance sheets at September 30, 2017 and December 31, 2016, respectively, with a corresponding liability amount recorded to “Accrued expenses”.

Other Indemnifications

The Company has provided certain standard indemnifications in connection with the sale of the Human Services segment to Molina Healthcare Inc. (“Molina”) effective November 1, 2015. All representations and warranties made by the Company in the Membership Interest Purchase Agreement (the “Purchase Agreement”) to sell the Human Services segment ended on February 1, 2017. However, claims made prior to February 1, 2017 by the purchaser of the Human Services segment against these representations and warranties may survive until the claims are settled. In addition, certain representations, including tax representations, survive until the expiration of applicable statutes of limitation, and healthcare representations survive until the third anniversary of the closing date. The Company received indications from the purchaser of the Human Services segment prior to the February 1, 2017 deadline regarding potential indemnification claims. One such potential indemnification claim relates to Rodriguez v. Providence Community Corrections (the “Rodriguez Litigation”), a complaint filed in the District Court for the Middle District of Tennessee, Nashville Division (the “Rodriguez Court”), against Providence Community Corrections, Inc. (“PCC”), an entity sold under the Purchase Agreement. In September 2017, the parties to the Rodriguez Litigation submitted a proposed settlement to the Rodriguez Court for approval pursuant to which PCC would pay the plaintiffs approximately $14,000. In October 2017, the Rodriguez Court denied preliminary approval of the settlement agreement and requested that the parties provide additional information. In October 2017, the parties submitted an amended motion for the Rodriguez Court to approve the proposed settlement.

Molina and the Company have entered into a memorandum of understanding regarding a settlement of an indemnification claim by Molina with respect to the Rodriguez Litigation and other matters. As of September 30, 2017, the accrual is $15,000 with respect to an estimate of loss for potential indemnification claims. The Company expects to recover a substantial portion of the settlement through insurance coverage, although this cannot be assured.

The Company has provided certain standard indemnifications in connection with its Matrix stock subscription transaction whereby Mercury Fortuna Buyer, LLC (“Subscriber”), Providence and Matrix entered into a stock subscription agreement (the “Subscription Agreement”), dated August 28, 2016. The representations and warranties made by the Company in the Subscription Agreement survive through the 15th month following the closing date; however, certain fundamental representations survive through the 36th month following the closing date. The covenants and agreements of the parties to be performed prior to the closing survive through the 15th month following the closing date, and all other covenants and agreements survive until the expiration of the applicable statute of limitations in the event of a breach, or for such lesser periods specified therein. The Company is not aware of any indemnification liabilities with respect to Matrix that require accrual at September 30, 2017.

Other Contingencies

On October 26, 2017, the UK Ministry of Justice (the “MOJ”) released a report on reoffending statistics for certain offenders who entered probation services during the period October 2015 to December 2015. The report provides statistics for all providers of probation services, including the Company’s subsidiary Reducing Reoffending Partnership (“RRP”). This information is the first data set that is utilized to determine performance payments under the various providers’ transforming rehabilitation contracts with the MOJ, as the actual rates of recidivism are compared to benchmark rates established by the MOJ. Across the industry, including for RRP, while certain rates of recidivism were less than the applicable benchmarks, other rates exceeded the benchmarks established by the MOJ. If such rates of recidivism were to continue to exceed the benchmark rates established by the MOJ, RRP could be required to make payments to the MOJ, which amounts could be material. The amount of potential payments to the MOJ, if any, under RRP’s contracts with the MOJ is not estimable at this time, as the MOJ is reviewing the data to understand the underlying reasons for the increase in certain rates of recidivism and other factors that could impact the contractual measure.

Loss Reserves for Certain Reinsurance Programs

The Company historically reinsured a substantial portion of its automobile, general and professional liability and workers’ compensation costs under reinsurance programs through the Company’s wholly-owned subsidiary, Social Services Providers Captive Insurance Company (“SPCIC”), a licensed captive insurance company domiciled in the State of Arizona. As of May 16, 2017, SPCIC did not renew the expiring reinsurance policies. SPCIC will continue to resolve claims under the historical policy years.

The Company utilizes a report prepared by an independent actuary to estimate the gross expected losses related to historical automobile, general and professional and workers’ compensation liability reinsurance policies, including the estimated losses in excess of SPCIC’s insurance limits, which would be reimbursed to SPCIC to the extent such losses were incurred. As of September 30, 2017 and December 31, 2016, the Company had reserves of $8,309 and $11,195, respectively, for the automobile, general and professional liability and workers’ compensation reinsurance policies, net of expected receivables for losses in excess of SPCIC’s historical insurance limits. The gross reserve as of September 30, 2017 and December 31, 2016 of $14,407 and $16,460, respectively, is classified as “Reinsurance liability reserves” and “Other long-term liabilities” in the condensed consolidated balance sheets. The estimated amount to be reimbursed to SPCIC as of September 30, 2017 and December 31, 2016 was $6,098 and $5,265, respectively, and is classified as “Other receivables” and “Other assets” in the condensed consolidated balance sheets.

Deferred Compensation Plan

The Company has one deferred compensation plan for highly compensated employees of NET Services as of September 30, 2017. The deferred compensation plan is unfunded, and benefits are paid from the general assets of the Company. The total of participant deferrals, which is reflected in “Other long-term liabilities” in the condensed consolidated balance sheets, was $1,718 and $1,430 at September 30, 2017 and December 31, 2016, respectively.

12. Transactions with Related Parties

The Company incurred legal expenses under an indemnification agreement with the Standby Purchasers as further discussed in Note 11, Commitments and Contingencies. Convertible preferred stock dividends earned by the Standby Purchasers during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2017 totaled $1,062 and $3,151, respectively. Convertible preferred stock dividends earned by the Standby Purchasers during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2016 totaled $1,059 and $3,154, respectively.

During the three months ended March 31, 2017, the Company made a $566 loan to Mission Providence. The loan was repaid during the three months ended September 30, 2017.

13. Discontinued Operations

On November 1, 2015, the Company completed the sale of the Human Services segment. During the three and nine months ended September 30, 2017, the Company recorded additional expenses related to the Human Services segment, principally related to legal proceedings as described in Note 11, Commitments and Contingencies, related to an indemnified legal matter.

Effective October 19, 2016, the Company completed the Matrix Transaction. Prior to the closing of the Matrix Transaction, the financial results of Matrix were included in the Company's HA Services segment, which has been reflected as a discontinued operation for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2016. Following the Matrix Transaction, the Company has a continuing involvement with Matrix through its ownership interest in Matrix, which is accounted for as an equity method investment. As of September 30, 2017, the Company holds a 46.6% ownership interest in Matrix. Matrix's pretax loss for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2017 totaled $582 and $896, respectively. There have been no cash inflows or outflows from or to Matrix subsequent to the closing of the Matrix Transaction, other than the payment of working capital adjustments and management fees associated with its ongoing relationship with Matrix, of which $841 was received during the nine months ended September 30, 2017. $259 and $185 are included in "Other receivables" in the condensed consolidated balance sheets at September 30, 2017 and December 31, 2016, respectively, related to management fees receivable.

14. Segments

Providence, through its subsidiaries and other companies in which it holds interests, is primarily engaged in the provision of healthcare and workforce development services. The subsidiaries and other companies in which the Company holds interests comprise the following segments:

- NET Services – Nationwide provider of non-emergency medical transportation programs for state governments and managed care organizations.

- WD Services – Global provider of employment preparation and placement and legal offender rehabilitation services to eligible participants of government sponsored programs.
- Matrix Investment – Minority interest in nationwide provider of in-home care optimization and management solutions, including comprehensive health assessments, to members of managed care organizations, accounted for as an equity method investment.

Effective October 19, 2016, pursuant to the Matrix Transaction, the Company no longer owns a controlling interest in Matrix, which historically constituted the HA Services segment as further discussed in Note 13, Discontinued Operations. As the HA Services segment, through October 19, 2016, is presented as a discontinued operation, it is not reflected in the Company's segment disclosures. However, the Company accounts for its noncontrolling interest in Matrix from October 19, 2016 through present as an equity method investment, which solely comprises the Matrix Investment in the table below.

The following tables set forth certain financial information from continuing operations attributable to the Company's business segments for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2017 and 2016:

Overview of our business

Providence, through its subsidiaries and other companies in which it holds interests, is primarily engaged in the provision of healthcare and workforce development services. The subsidiaries and other companies in which we hold interests comprise the following segments:

- Non-Emergency Transportation Services (“NET Services”) – Nationwide provider of non-emergency medical transportation programs for state governments and managed care organizations.
- Workforce Development Services (“WD Services”) – Global provider of employment preparation and placement and legal offender rehabilitation services to eligible participants of government sponsored programs.
- Matrix Investment – Minority interest in nationwide provider of in-home care optimization and management solutions, including comprehensive health assessments, to members of managed care organizations, accounted for as an equity method investment.

Business Outlook and Trends

Our performance is affected by a number of trends that drive the demand for our services. In particular, the markets in which we operate are exposed to various trends such as healthcare industry and demographic dynamics in the United States (“U.S.”) and international government outsourcing and employment dynamics. Over the long term, we believe there are numerous factors that could affect growth within the industries in which we operate, including:

- an aging population, which will increase demand for healthcare services;
- a movement towards value-based, versus fee for service, care and budget pressure on governments, both of which may increase the use of private corporations to provide necessary and innovative services;
- increasing demand for in-home care provision, driven by cost pressures on traditional reimbursement models and technological advances enabling remote engagement;
- technological advancements, which may be utilized by us to improve service and lower costs and by others, which may increase industry competitiveness;
- changes in UK government policy, such as decreased volumes in future welfare-to-work programs, specifically through the UK’s Work and Health Programme, which will have a reduced scope and reduced funding compared with the prior programs;
- the results of the referendum on the UK’s exit from the European Union and related political and economic uncertainty in the UK; and
- the U.S. federal government’s expressed intent to repeal the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act and replace such law with an alternative proposal. The details of both the extent of the provisions that may be repealed as well as the details of any potential replacement legislation are uncertain at this time. Enactment of adverse legislation, regulation or agency guidance, may reduce the demand for our services, our ability to conduct some or all of our business and/or reimbursement rates for services performed within our segments.

Historically, our segments have grown through organic expansion into new markets and service lines, organic expansion within existing markets and service lines, increases in the number of members served under contracts we have been awarded, the securing of new contracts, and acquisitions. As we continue to focus our attention and capital on our domestic, healthcare services operations ("U.S. Healthcare Services"), we may pursue the acquisition of attractive businesses that are complementary to our U.S. Healthcare Services. In addition, as evidenced by the 2016 Matrix Transaction (as defined below), we may also enter into strategic partnerships if we feel this provides the best opportunity to maximize shareholder value. The pursuit of our strategy may also result in the disposition of current or future investments, as demonstrated in 2017 with our sale of our equity investment in Mission Providence and in 2015 with the sale of our Human Services segment. In coming to these determinations, we base our decisions on a variety of factors, including the availability of alternative opportunities to deploy capital, maximize shareholder value or other strategic considerations. Furthermore, the Company typically incurs costs related to merger and acquisition activities, including third-party costs, whether the transaction is completed or not.

Critical accounting estimates and policies

As of September 30, 2017, there has been no change in our critical accounting policies, other than for stock-based compensation and recoverability of goodwill, as discussed below. For further discussion of our critical accounting policies, see management's discussion and analysis of financial condition and results of operations contained in our Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2016.

Stock-Based Compensation

Our primary forms of employee stock-based compensation are stock option awards and restricted stock awards, including certain awards which vest based upon performance conditions. We measure the value of stock option awards on the date of grant at fair value using the appropriate valuation techniques, including the Black-Scholes and Monte Carlo option-pricing models. We recognize the fair value as stock-based compensation expense on a straight-line basis over the requisite service period, which is typically the vesting period. The pricing models require various highly judgmental assumptions including volatility and expected option term. If any of the assumptions used in the models change significantly, stock-based compensation expense may differ materially in the future from that recorded in the current period.

As a result of the adoption of Accounting Standards Update ("ASU") No. 2016-09, Compensation – Stock Compensation (Topic 718): Improvements to Employee Share-Based Payment Accounting ("ASU 2016-09"), effective January 1, 2017, we no longer record stock-based compensation expense net of estimated forfeitures and the tax effects of awards are treated as discrete items in the period in which tax windfalls or shortfalls occur. The adoption also impacted the presentation of cash flows and the computation of earnings per share.

The adoption of ASU 2016-09 will subject our tax rate to quarterly volatility from the effects of stock award exercises and vesting activities, including the adverse impact on our income tax provision for awards which result in a tax deduction less than the amount recorded for financial reporting purposes based upon the fair value of the award at the grant date. For example, no shares will be distributed under the Company's 2015 Holding Company LTI Program (the "HoldCo LTIP") unless the volume weighted average of Providence's stock price over a 90-day period ending on December 31, 2017 exceeds $56.79. If this market condition is not satisfied, a significant tax shortfall will result, causing an adverse impact on our tax provision.

Recoverability of Goodwill

Goodwill. In accordance with ASC 350, Intangibles-Goodwill and Other, we review goodwill for impairment annually, or more frequently, if events and circumstances indicate that an asset may be impaired. Such circumstances could include, but are not limited to: (1) the loss or modification of significant contracts, (2) a significant adverse change in legal factors or in business climate, (3) unanticipated competition, (4) an adverse action or assessment by a regulator, or (5) a significant decline in the Company's stock price. We perform the annual goodwill impairment test for all reporting units as of October 1.

First, we perform qualitative assessments for each reporting unit to determine whether it is more likely than not that the fair value of a reporting unit is less than its carrying amount. If the qualitative assessment suggests that it is more likely than not that the fair value of a reporting unit is less than its carrying value amount, we then perform a quantitative assessment and compare the fair value of the reporting unit to its carrying value.

We adopted ASU No. 2017-04, Intangibles-Goodwill and Other (Topic 350): Simplifying the Test for Goodwill Impairment (“ASU 2017-04”) effective April 1, 2017. ASU 2017-04 removes the requirement to compare the implied fair value of goodwill with its carrying amount as part of step two of the goodwill impairment test. Instead, if we deem it necessary to perform the quantitative goodwill impairment test in an annual or interim period, we recognize an impairment charge equal to the excess, if any, of a reporting unit’s carrying amount over its fair value, not to exceed the total amount of goodwill allocated to the reporting unit.

Results of operations

Segment reporting. Our operations are organized and reviewed by management along our segment lines. We operate in two principal business segments: NET Services and WD Services. Our investment in CCHN Group Holdings, Inc. and its subsidiaries (“Matrix”) is also a reportable segment referred to as the “Matrix Investment”.

On October 19, 2016, affiliates of Frazier Healthcare Partners purchased a 53.2% equity interest in Matrix, with Providence retaining a 46.8% equity interest (the “Matrix Transaction”), resulting in our ownership of a noncontrolling interest (46.6% as of September 30, 2017) in our historical Health Assessment Services (“HA Services”) segment. The HA Services segment results of operations for the periods through October 19, 2016 are separately discussed in the “Discontinued operations, net of tax” section set forth below. The results of operations for periods subsequent to October 19, 2016 are separately discussed in the “Equity in net loss of investees” section set forth below. Additionally, effective November 1, 2015, we completed the sale of our Human Services segment. The Human Services segment results of operations are separately discussed in the “Discontinued operations, net of tax” section set forth below. Subsequent to the sale of our Human Services segment, we have incurred additional expenses in certain periods related to the settlement of indemnification claims and associated legal costs, which are recorded to “Discontinued operations, net of tax”.

Segment results are based on how our chief operating decision maker manages our business, makes operating decisions and evaluates operating performance. The operating results of the two principal business segments include revenue and expenses incurred by the segment, as well as an allocation of certain direct expenses incurred by our corporate division on behalf of the segment. Indirect expenses, including unallocated corporate functions and expenses, such as executive, finance, accounting, human resources, insurance administration, internal audit, process improvement, information technology and legal, as well as the results of our captive insurance company (the “Captive”) and elimination entries recorded in consolidation are reflected in “Corporate and Other”.

Operating expenses for Q3 2017 compared to Q3 2016 included an increase in expenses attributable to NET Services of $10.8 million and an increase in expenses attributable to Corporate and Other of $0.5 million. This increase in operating expenses was partially offset by a decrease in operating expenses attributable to WD Services of $10.6 million.

Operating income. Consolidated operating income for Q3 2017 decreased $3.5 million, or 35.6%, compared to Q3 2016. The decrease was primarily attributable to a decrease in operating income in Q3 2017 as compared to Q3 2016 at NET Services of $3.3 million and an increase in Corporate and Other operating loss of $0.6 million. This decrease in operating income was partially offset by an increase in WD Services operating income of $0.3 million.

Interest expense, net. Consolidated interest expense, net for Q3 2017 and Q3 2016 remained relatively consistent.

Equity in net (gain) loss of investees. Equity in net (gain) loss of investees primarily relates to our investments in Mission Providence and Matrix. Mission Providence, which was sold effective September 29, 2017, was part of WD Services, and began providing services in July 2015. We recorded 75% of Mission Providence's profit or loss in equity in net (gain) loss of investees. We began reporting Matrix as an equity investment effective October 19, 2016, upon the completion of the Matrix Transaction, and record our share of Matrix's profit or loss in net (gain) loss of investees. Our equity in net loss of investees for Q3 2017 of $0.5 million primarily related to our equity in net loss for Mission Providence of $0.5 million. Matrix was close to break-even on a net income basis in Q3 2017. Included in Matrix's results are depreciation and amortization of $8.5 million, interest expense of $3.7 million, equity compensation of $0.6 million, management fees paid to certain of Matrix's shareholders of $0.6 million and merger and acquisition related diligence costs of $0.3 million.

Gain on sale of equity investment. The gain on sale of equity investment of $12.6 million relates to the sale of the Company's equity interest in Mission Providence effective September 29, 2017. The investment in Mission Providence was part of the WD Services segment.

Loss (gain) on foreign currency transactions. The foreign currency loss of $0.2 million and foreign currency gain of $0.5 million for Q3 2017 and Q3 2016, respectively, were primarily due to translation adjustments of our foreign subsidiaries.

Provision for income taxes. Our effective tax rate from continuing operations for Q3 2017 and Q3 2016 was 16.7% and 55.6%, respectively. The effective tax rate exceeded the U.S. federal statutory rate of 35% for Q3 2016 primarily due to foreign net operating losses (including equity investment losses) for which the future income tax benefit currently cannot be recognized, losses in foreign jurisdictions with tax rates lower than the U.S. rate of 35%, state income taxes, and certain non-deductible expenses. Foreign net operating losses for which no tax benefit can be provided were higher in Q3 2016 versus Q3 2017 resulting in a decrease in the effective tax rate from Q3 2016 to Q3 2017. Additionally, there is no provision for income taxes related to the gain on sale of equity investment of $12.6 million due to the substantial difference in tax basis versus book basis in the investment.

The Company recorded excess tax deficiencies related to stock-based compensation for the three months ended September 30, 2017 of $0.3 million which increased the provision for income taxes. The adoption of ASU 2016-09 subjects our tax rate to quarterly volatility from the effects of stock award exercises and vesting activities, including the adverse impact on our income tax provision for awards which result in a tax deduction less than the amount recorded for financial reporting purposes based upon fair value of the award at the grant date.

Discontinued operations, net of tax. Discontinued operations, net of tax, includes the activity of our former Human Services segment and our former HA Services segment, composed entirely of our 100% equity interest in Matrix until the completion of the Matrix Transaction on October 19, 2016. For Q3 2017, discontinued operations, net of tax for our Human Services segment was break-even. For Q3 2016, discontinued operations, net of tax for our Human Services segment was a loss of $5.0 million, and discontinued operations, net of tax for our HA Services segment was net income of $2.2 million. See Note 13, Discontinued Operations, to our condensed consolidated financial statements for additional information.

Net loss attributable to noncontrolling interests. Net loss attributable to noncontrolling interests primarily relates to a minority interest held by a third-party operating partner in our company servicing the offender rehabilitation contract in our WD Services segment.

Operating income. Consolidated operating income for YTD 2017 decreased $5.7 million, or 23.0%, compared to YTD 2016. The decrease was primarily attributable to a decrease in operating income attributable to NET Services of $11.6 million as compared to YTD 2016. This decrease in operating income was partially offset by a decrease in WD Services operating loss of $5.7 million and a decrease in Corporate and Other operating loss of $0.2 million.

Interest expense, net. Consolidated interest expense, net for YTD 2017 decreased $0.3 million, or 20.7%, compared to YTD 2016.

The effective tax rate exceeded the U.S. federal statutory rate of 35% for YTD 2016 primarily due to foreign net operating losses (including equity investment losses) for which the future income tax benefit currently cannot be recognized, losses in foreign jurisdictions with tax rates lower than the U.S. rate of 35%, state income taxes, and certain non-deductible expenses. Foreign net operating losses for which no tax benefit can be provided were higher in YTD 2016 versus YTD 2017 resulting in a decrease in the effective tax rate from YTD 2016 to YTD 2017. Additionally, there was no provision for income taxes related to the gain on sale of equity investment of $12.6 million due to the substantial difference in tax basis versus book basis in the investment.

The Company recorded excess tax deficiencies related to stock-based compensation for the nine months ended September 30, 2017 of $0.1 million which increased the provision for income taxes. The adoption of ASU 2016-09 subjects our tax rate to quarterly volatility from the effects of stock award exercises and vesting activities, including the adverse impact on our income tax provision for awards which result in a tax deduction less than the amount recorded for financial reporting purposes based upon fair value of the award at the grant date.

Discontinued operations, net of tax. Discontinued operations, net of tax, includes the activity of our former Human Services segment and our former HA Services segment, composed entirely of our 100% equity interest in Matrix until the completion of the Matrix Transaction on October 19, 2016. Service revenue, net. Service revenue, net for NET Services for Q3 2017 increased $7.5 million, or 2.4%, compared to Q3 2016. The increase was primarily related to net increased revenue from existing contracts of $19.2 million, due to the net impact of membership and rate changes, including final agreement on a rate adjustment related to increased utilization and the release of previously accrued revenue hold-backs based on certain contract performance requirements on a significant contract, in addition to the impact of new contracts which contributed $18.8 million of revenue for Q3 2017. These increases were partially offset by the impact of contracts we no longer serve, including a contract with the state of New York, which resulted in a decrease in revenue of $30.5 million.

Service expense, net. Service expense for our NET Services segment included the following for Q3 2017 and Q3 2016 (in thousands):

	Three Months Ended September 30,
	2017		2016
	$	Percentage of Revenue	$	Percentage of Revenue
Purchased services	250,282	77.1%	241,884	76.2%
Payroll and related costs	40,753	12.5%	41,832	13.2%
Other operating expenses	13,299	4.1%	10,130	3.2%
Stock-based compensation	120	0.0%	73	0.0%
Total service expense	304,454	93.7%	293,919	92.6%

Service expense for Q3 2017 increased $10.5 million, or 3.6%, compared to Q3 2016 due primarily to higher purchased services and other operating costs, partially offset by decreased payroll and related costs.

Purchased services as a percentage of revenue increased from 76.2% in Q3 2016 to 77.1% in Q3 2017 primarily attributable to an increase in utilization across certain contracts, including multiple managed care contracts in California, and the impact of new managed care organization contracts in certain markets being at a lower margin than previous contracts. These increases were partially offset by initiatives aimed at better aligning the rates we pay to our transportation provider partners with local market conditions and the fees paid to us by our customers. In addition, the impact of Hurricane Irma resulted in decreased utilization for certain contracts.

Payroll and related costs as a percentage of revenue decreased from 13.2% in Q3 2016 to 12.5% in Q3 2017 due to efficiencies gained from multiple process improvement initiatives, including those aimed at lowering payroll expense across our reservation and operation center networks, as well as a decrease in incentive compensation. Other operating expenses increased for Q3 2017 as compared to Q3 2016 primarily attributable to an incremental $1.5 million of value enhancement and related costs incurred for external resources used in the design and implementation of NET Services member experience and value enhancement initiatives, as well as increased software and hardware maintenance costs associated with new technology initiatives.

General and administrative expense. General and administrative expense in Q3 2017 remained constant as compared to Q3 2016. As a percentage of revenue, general and administrative expense remained constant at 0.9%.

Depreciation and amortization. Depreciation and amortization increased $0.2 million primarily due to the addition of long-lived assets relating to information technology projects. As a percentage of revenue, depreciation and amortization remained constant at 1.0% for Q3 2016 and Q3 2017.

Service revenue, net. Service revenue, net for NET Services for YTD 2017 increased $70.5 million, or 7.7%, compared to YTD 2016. The increase was primarily related to net increased revenue from existing contracts of $68.3 million, due to the net impact of membership and rate changes, including final agreement on a rate adjustment related to increased utilization and the release of previously accrued revenue hold-backs based on certain contract performance requirements on a significant contract, in addition to the impact of new contracts, including new managed care organization contracts in Florida and New York, which contributed $70.5 million of revenue for YTD 2017. These increases were partially offset by the impact of contracts we no longer serve, including a contract with the state of New York, which resulted in a decrease in revenue of $68.3 million.

Service expense, net. Service expense for our NET Services segment included the following for YTD 2017 and YTD 2016 (in thousands):

	Nine Months Ended September 30,
	2017		2016
	$	Percentage of Revenue	$	Percentage of Revenue
Purchased services	766,303	77.6%	694,934	75.8%

Other operating expenses	37,584	3.8%	29,032	3.2%
Stock-based compensation	411	0.0%	228	0.0%
Total service expense	927,082	93.9%	846,311	92.3%

Service expense for YTD 2017 increased $80.8 million, or 9.5%, compared to YTD 2016 due primarily to higher purchased services and other operating costs, with a slight increase in payroll and related costs.

The increase in service expense was primarily attributable to the impact of new managed care organization contracts in California, Florida and New York. Purchased services as a percentage of revenue increased from 75.8% in YTD 2016 to 77.6% in YTD 2017 primarily attributable to an increase in utilization across multiple contracts. The higher utilization was in part driven by increased Medicaid reimbursement in New Jersey for certain medical services, which in turn increased demand for transportation services; increased utilization across multiple managed care contracts in California; and lower cancellation rates across multiple contracts, which we believe was primarily due to milder winter weather conditions during the first quarter of 2017, although we did experience lower utilization for contracts in Q3 2017 due in part to the impact of the Hurricane Irma.

Payroll and related costs as a percentage of revenue decreased from 13.3% in YTD 2016 to 12.4% in YTD 2017 due to efficiencies gained from multiple process improvement initiatives, including those aimed at lowering payroll expense across our reservation and operation center networks, as well as a decrease in incentive compensation. Other operating expenses increased for YTD 2017 as compared to YTD 2016 primarily attributable to an incremental $3.5 million of value enhancement and related costs incurred for external resources used in the design and implementation of NET Services member experience and value enhancement initiatives in YTD 2017.

General and administrative expense. General and administrative expense in YTD 2017 increased $0.4 million, or 4.7%, as compared to YTD 2016, due to increased facility costs resulting from the overall growth of our operations. As a percentage of revenue, general and administrative expense remained constant at 0.9%.

Depreciation and amortization. Depreciation and amortization increased $0.9 million primarily due to the addition of long-lived assets relating to information technology projects. As a percentage of revenue, depreciation and amortization remained constant at 1.0%.

Service revenue, net. Service revenue, net for Q3 2017 decreased $10.3 million, or 10.8%, compared to Q3 2016. Excluding the favorable effects of changes in currency exchange rates, service revenue decreased 11.2% in Q3 2017 compared to Q3 2016. This decrease was primarily related to the anticipated ending of referrals under the segment's primary employability program in the UK, as well as decreased revenue under our offender rehabilitation program due to $5.4 million of revenue recognized in Q3 2016 related to the finalization of a contractual adjustment for the prior contract years ended March 31, 2015 and 2016.

These revenue decreases were partially offset by increases in health services in the UK and various employability contracts outside the UK, including France, Australia and Germany.

Service expense. Service expense for our WD Services segment included the following for Q3 2017 and Q3 2016 (in thousands):

	Three Months Ended September 30,

Total service expense	73,581	86.9%	84,051	88.5%

Service expense in Q3 2017 decreased $10.5 million, or 12.5%, compared to Q3 2016. Payroll and related costs decreased primarily as a result of the ending of referrals under the segment's primary employability program in the UK as well as redundancy plans across the WD Services operations that have better aligned headcount with service delivery volumes, resulting in a decrease of payroll and related costs as a percentage of revenue. Payroll and related costs include $0.3 million and $0.1 million in Q3 2017 and Q3 2016, respectively, of termination benefits related to redundancy plans. Purchased services decreased in Q3 2017 compared to Q3 2016 primarily as a result of the ending of client referrals under our primary employability program in the UK, which resulted in a decline in the use of outsourced services.

General and administrative expense. General and administrative expense in Q3 2017 increased $0.2 million compared to Q3 2016 due primarily due to increased rent related to facilities used in our offender rehabilitation program.

Depreciation and amortization. Depreciation and amortization for Q3 2017 decreased $0.3 million compared to Q3 2016, primarily due to the asset impairment charges incurred during the fourth quarter of 2016, which decreased the value of our intangible assets and certain property and equipment.

Service revenue, net. Service revenue, net for YTD 2017 decreased $46.0 million, or 16.7%, compared to YTD 2016. Excluding the effects of changes in currency exchange rates, service revenue decreased 12.3% in YTD 2017 compared to YTD 2016. This decrease was primarily related to the anticipated decline of referrals under the segment's primary employability program in the UK, as well as decreased revenue under our offender rehabilitation program. These decreases were partially offset by increases across various employability contracts outside the UK, including in Australia, Saudi Arabia, France and Germany, as well as increased revenue from our health services contract in the UK. YTD 2017 includes the impact of $5.2 million of revenue recognized under the offender rehabilitation program related to the finalization of a contractual adjustment for the contract year ended March 31, 2017, whereas YTD 2016 includes $5.4 million of revenue recognized under the offender rehabilitation program related to the finalization of a contractual adjustment for the prior contract years ended March 31, 2015 and 2016.

Total service expense	199,665	87.1%	247,797	90.0%

Service expense in YTD 2017 decreased $48.1 million, or 19.4%, compared to YTD 2016. Payroll and related costs decreased primarily as a result of declining referrals under the segment's primary employability program in the UK as well as redundancy plans that have better aligned headcount with service delivery volumes resulting in a decrease of payroll and related costs as a percentage of revenue. Payroll and related costs include $1.1 million and $5.2 million in YTD 2017 and YTD 2016, respectively, of termination benefits related to redundancy plans. Purchased services decreased in YTD 2017 compared to YTD 2016 primarily as a result of a decline in client referrals under our primary employability program in the UK, which resulted in a decline in the use of outsourced services.

General and administrative expense. General and administrative expense in YTD 2017 decreased $2.3 million compared to YTD 2016 due to office closures associated with restructuring of the UK operations, as well as lower rent for certain offices.

Depreciation and amortization. Depreciation and amortization for YTD 2017 decreased $1.2 million compared to YTD 2016, primarily due to the asset impairment charges incurred during the fourth quarter of 2016, which decreased the value of our intangible assets and certain property and equipment.

Corporate and Other

Corporate and Other includes the headcount and professional service costs incurred at the holding company level, at the Captive, and elimination entries to account for inter-segment transactions. Corporate and Other financial results are as follows for Q3 2017 and Q3 2016 (in thousands):

	Three Months Ended September 30,
	2017	2016
	$	$
Service revenue, net	—	31

General and administrative expense	8,750	7,680
Depreciation and amortization	95	122
Operating loss	(8,842)	(8,289)

Operating loss. Corporate and Other operating loss in Q3 2017 increased by $0.6 million or 6.7% as compared to Q3 2016. This increase was primarily related to a $2.0 million increase in professional costs due to activities associated with our increased focus on strategic initiatives, as well as a $0.6 million increase in compensation, including the timing impact of accruals for incentive compensation. These increases were partially offset by decreases in legal and accounting fees and lower costs in the Company's captive insurance program due to the Company ceasing to write new policies under the captive in Q2 2017, which drove the decrease in "Service expense".

General and administrative expense includes stock-based compensation for the HoldCo LTIP of $1.0 million and $0.9 million for Q3 2017 and Q3 2016, respectively. No shares will be distributed under the HoldCo LTIP unless the volume weighted average of Providence's stock price over a 90-day period ending on December 31, 2017 exceeds $56.79.

Corporate and Other financial results are as follows for YTD 2017 and YTD 2016 (in thousands):

Operating loss. Corporate and Other operating loss in YTD 2017 decreased by $0.2 million, or 0.8%, as compared to YTD 2016. This decrease was primarily related to a reduction in insurance loss reserves in 2017 due to favorable claims history of our Captive reinsurance programs, which is included in "Service expense" as well as decreased accounting, legal and professional fees included in "General and administrative expense". This decrease was partially offset by an increase in cash settled stock-based compensation expense of $1.3 million, primarily as a result of a more significant increase in the Company's stock price in YTD 2017 as compared to YTD 2016, an increase in stock settled stock-based compensation expense of $1.4 million, primarily related to an increase in expense for the HoldCo LTIP and a benefit recorded in YTD 2016 for performance based units, with no corresponding benefit in YTD 2017, as well as an increase of $3.6 million of professional costs due to activities associated with our increased focus on strategic initiatives.

General and administrative expense includes stock-based compensation for the HoldCo LTIP of $3.1 million and $2.4 million for YTD 2017 and YTD 2016, respectively. No shares will be distributed under the HoldCo LTIP unless the volume weighted average of Providence's stock price over a 90-day period ending on December 31, 2017 exceeds $56.79.

Seasonality

Our quarterly operating results and operating cash flows normally fluctuate due in part to seasonal factors, uneven demand for services and the timing of new contracts, which impact the amount of revenues earned and expenses incurred. NET Services experiences fluctuations in demand during the summer and winter seasons. Due to historically higher demand in the summer months, lower demand during the winter, and a primarily fixed revenue stream based on a per-member, per-month payment structure, NET Services normally experiences lower operating margins during the summer season and higher operating margins during the winter. WD Services is impacted by both the timing of commencement and expiration of major contracts. Under many of WD Services' contracts, we invest significant sums of money in personnel, leased office space, purchased or developed technology, and other costs, and generally incur these costs prior to commencing services and receiving payments. This results in significant variability in financial performance and cash flows between quarters and for comparative periods. It is expected that future contracts will be structured in a similar fashion. In addition, under the majority of WD Services' contracts, the Company relies on its customers, which include government agencies, to provide referrals, for whom the Company can provide services and earn revenue. The timing and magnitude of referrals can fluctuate significantly, leading to volatility in revenue.

Liquidity and capital resources

Short-term capital requirements consist primarily of recurring operating expenses and new contract start-up costs, including workforce restructuring costs. We expect to meet any cash requirements through available cash on hand, cash generated from our operating segments, and borrowing capacity under our Credit Facility (as defined below).

Cash flow from operating activities was our primary source of cash during YTD 2017. Additionally, YTD 2017 included $15.8 million in proceeds from the sale of our equity investment in Mission Providence which is included in cash provided by investing activities. Our balance of cash and cash equivalents was $92.2 million and $72.3 million at September 30, 2017 and December 31, 2016, respectively, including $33.8 million and $21.4 million held in foreign countries, respectively. The September 30, 2017 foreign cash balance includes the proceeds from the sale of Mission Providence. Such cash held in foreign countries is generally used to fund foreign operations, although it may also be used to repay intercompany indebtedness existing between Providence and its foreign subsidiaries.

We had restricted cash of $7.1 million and $14.1 million at September 30, 2017 and December 31, 2016, respectively, primarily related to contractual obligations and activities of our captive insurance subsidiary. These restricted cash amounts are not included in our balance of cash and cash equivalents. At September 30, 2017 and December 31, 2016, we had no amounts outstanding under our Credit Facility.

We may, from time to time, access capital markets to raise equity or debt financing for various business reasons, including acquisitions. We may also raise debt financing to fund future repurchases of our common stock. The timing, term, size, and pricing of any such financing will depend on investor interest and market conditions, and there can be no assurance that we will be able to obtain any such financing. On November 2, 2017, the Company's Board of Directors approved the extension of the Company's existing stock repurchase program, authorizing the Company to engage in a common stock repurchase program to repurchase up to $69.6 million (the amount remaining from the $100.0 million repurchase amount authorized in 2016) in aggregate value of the Company's common stock through December 31, 2018.

The cash flow statement for all periods presented includes both continuing and discontinued operations. Discontinued operations for YTD 2016 includes the activity of our Human Services and HA Services segments. Income from discontinued operations totaled $0.3 million for YTD 2016. Significant non-cash items of our discontinued operations in YTD 2016 included $3.7 million of depreciation expense and $17.5 million of amortization expense. Our discontinued operations also purchased property and equipment totaling $8.0 million during YTD 2016.

YTD 2017 cash flows compared to YTD 2016

Operating activities. Cash provided by operating activities was $36.9 million for YTD 2017, a decrease of $8.3 million compared with YTD 2016. YTD 2017 and YTD 2016 cash flow from operations was driven by net income of $14.7 million and $7.1 million, respectively, non-cash adjustments to reconcile net income to net cash provided by operating activities of $8.0 million and $37.1 million, respectively, and changes in working capital of $14.2 million and $1.1 million, respectively. The change in adjustments to reconcile net income to net cash provided by operating activities was due primarily to the impact of the disposition of HA Services, resulting in decreased depreciation, amortization and deferred taxes in YTD 2017 as compared to YTD 2016, as well as the gain on sale of Mission Providence of $12.6 million in YTD 2017. The change in working capital is primarily driven by the following:

- Accounts receivable generated a cash outflow for YTD 2017 of $10.6 million as compared to an outflow of $22.1 million for YTD 2016. The decrease in cash outflow of $11.5 million is primarily attributable to NET Services due to the timing of collections as well as an outflow of $1.4 million of HA Services in YTD 2016.
- Prepaid expenses and other generated a cash inflow of $7.5 million in YTD 2017, as compared to a cash outflow of $9.9 million in YTD 2016. The increase in cash inflow of $17.4 million was primarily attributable to a decrease in prepayments in WD Services in relation to certain contracts and a decrease in the prepayment of insurance costs and income taxes.
- Accounts payable and accrued expenses generated a cash outflow of $3.4 million in YTD 2017, as compared to a cash inflow of $32.5 million in YTD 2016. The decrease in cash inflow of $35.9 million is due primarily to the impact of NET Services accrued contract payments of $10.1 million, reduced accruals at WD Services of $3.9 million in YTD 2017 as compared to YTD 2016, including the impact of redundancy plans, timing differences on tax payments, as well as the disposition of HA Services, which generated cash inflow of $5.8 million in YTD 2016. Partially offsetting these impacts is the impact of the increase in the accrued settlement related to our former Human Services segment of $9.0 million during YTD 2017 as compared to an increase of $6.0 million in YTD 2016.
- Accrued transportation costs of NET Services generated a cash inflow of $28.8 million in YTD 2017, as compared to a cash inflow of $31.9 million in YTD 2016. The decrease in cash inflow of $3.1 million is due primarily to the timing of payments.
- Income taxes payable on sale of business for YTD 2016 includes a cash outflow of $30.2 million related to the sale of our Human Services segment.

Investing activities. Net cash provided by investing activities of $4.9 million in YTD 2017 increased by $40.0 million as compared to YTD 2016. The increase was primarily attributable to $15.8 million in proceeds from the sale of our equity investment in Mission Providence, a decrease in funding of our equity investment in Mission Providence of $6.4 million and a decrease in the purchase of property and equipment of $18.6 million. YTD 2016 included purchases of property and equipment of $8.0 million by our discontinued operations.

Financing activities. Net cash used in financing activities of $22.3 million in YTD 2017 decreased $9.9 million as compared to YTD 2016. During YTD 2017, we repurchased $34.5 million less of our common stock than in YTD 2016. Partially offsetting this decrease in cash outflows was a decrease in net proceeds from debt during YTD 2017 as compared to YTD 2016 of $20.3 million as well as a decrease in proceeds from common stock issued pursuant to stock option exercises of $2.6 million.

Obligations and commitments

Credit facility. We are party to the amended and restated credit and guaranty agreement, dated as of August 2, 2013 (as amended, the “Credit Agreement”), with Bank of America, N.A., as administrative agent, swing line lender and letter of credit issuer, and the other lenders party thereto. The Credit Agreement provides us with a $200.0 million revolving credit facility (the “Credit Facility”), including a subfacility of $25.0 million for letters of credit. As of September 30, 2017, we had no borrowings and seven letters of credit in the amount of $11.0 million outstanding under the revolving credit facility. At September 30, 2017, our available credit under the revolving credit facility was $189.0 million. Under the Credit Agreement, the Company has an option to request an increase in the amount of the revolving credit facility from time to time (on substantially the same terms as apply to the existing facilities) in an aggregate amount of up to $75.0 million with either additional commitments from lenders under the Credit Agreement at such time or new commitments from financial institutions acceptable to the administrative agent in its reasonable discretion, so long as no default or event of default exists at the time of any such increase. The Company may not be able to access additional funds under this increase option as no lender is obligated to participate in any such increase under the Credit Facility. The Credit Facility matures on August 2, 2018.

Interest on the outstanding principal amount of the loans accrues, at the Company’s election, at a per annum rate equal to LIBOR, plus an applicable margin, or the base rate as defined in the agreement plus an applicable margin. The applicable margin ranges from 2.25% to 3.25% in the case of LIBOR loans and 1.25% to 2.25% in the case of the base rate loans, in each case, based on the Company’s consolidated leverage ratio as defined in the Credit Agreement. Interest on the loans is payable quarterly in arrears. In addition, the Company is obligated to pay a quarterly commitment fee based on a percentage of the unused portion of each lender’s commitment under the Credit Facility and quarterly letter of credit fees based on a percentage of the maximum amount available to be drawn under each outstanding letter of credit. The commitment fee and letter of credit fee range from 0.25% to 0.50% and 2.25% to 3.25%, respectively, in each case, based on the Company’s consolidated leverage ratio.

The Company's obligations under the Credit Facility are guaranteed by all of the Company's present and future domestic subsidiaries, excluding certain domestic subsidiaries which include the Company's insurance captives. The Company's obligations under, and each guarantor's obligations under its guaranty of, the Credit Facility are secured by a first priority lien on substantially all of the Company's respective assets, including a pledge of 100% of the issued and outstanding stock of the Company's domestic subsidiaries, excluding the Company's insurance captives, and 65% of the issued and outstanding stock of the Company's first tier foreign subsidiaries.

The Credit Agreement contains customary affirmative and negative covenants and events of default. The negative covenants include restrictions on the Company's ability to, among other things, incur additional indebtedness, create liens, make investments, give guarantees, pay dividends, sell assets, and merge and consolidate. The Company is subject to financial covenants, including consolidated net leverage and consolidated interest coverage covenants. The Company was in compliance with all covenants as of September 30, 2017.

Preferred Stock. Following (i) the completion of a rights offering in February 2015, under which certain holders of our Common Stock exercised subscription rights to purchase Preferred Stock, and (ii) the purchase of Preferred Stock by certain of Coliseum Capital Partners, L.P., Coliseum Capital Partners II, L.P., Coliseum Capital Co-Invest, L.P. and Blackwell Partners, LLC (collectively, the "Standby Purchasers"), pursuant to the Standby Purchase Agreement between the Standby Purchasers and the Company, the Company issued 805,000 shares of Preferred Stock, of which 803,232 shares are outstanding as of September 30, 2017. For further information regarding these transactions, see Item 7. "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations – Liquidity and capital resources – Obligations and commitments – Rights Offering" in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2016. We may pay a noncumulative cash dividend on each share of Preferred Stock, when, as and if declared by a committee of our Board of Directors ("Board"), at the rate of 5.5% per annum on the liquidation preference then in effect. On or before the third business day immediately preceding each fiscal quarter, we determine our intention whether or not to pay a cash dividend with respect to that ensuing quarter and give notice of our intention to each holder of Preferred Stock as soon as practicable thereafter.

In the event we do not declare and pay a cash dividend, the liquidation preference will be increased to an amount equal to the liquidation preference in effect at the start of the applicable dividend period, plus an amount equal to such then applicable liquidation preference multiplied by 8.5% per annum, computed on the basis of a 365-day year and the actual number of days elapsed from the start of the applicable dividend period to the applicable date of determination.

Cash dividends are payable quarterly in arrears on January 1, April 1, July 1 and October 1 of each year, and, if declared, will begin to accrue on the first day of the applicable dividend period. Paid in kind ("PIK") dividends, if applicable, will accrue and be cumulative on the same schedule as set forth above for cash dividends and will also be compounded at the applicable annual rate on each applicable subsequent dividend date. PIK dividends are paid upon the occurrence of a liquidation event, conversion or redemption in accordance with the terms of the Preferred Stock. Cash dividends were declared for the nine months ended September 30, 2017 and totaled $3.3 million.

Reinsurance and Self-Funded Insurance Programs

Reinsurance

We historically reinsured a substantial portion of our automobile, general and professional liability and workers' compensation costs under reinsurance programs through our wholly-owned captive insurance subsidiary, Social Services Providers Captive Insurance Company, or SPCIC. As of May 16, 2017, SPCIC did not renew the expiring reinsurance policies. SPCIC will continue to resolve claims under the historical policy years.

At September 30, 2017, the cumulative reserve for expected losses since inception of these historical automobile, general and professional liability and workers' compensation reinsurance programs was $1.8 million, $0.8 million and $5.7 million, respectively. Based on an independent actuarial report, our expected losses related to workers' compensation, automobile and general and professional liability in excess of our liability under our associated historical reinsurance programs at September 30, 2017 was $6.1 million. We recorded a corresponding receivable from third-party insurers and liability at September 30, 2017 for these expected losses, which would be paid by third-party insurers to the extent losses are incurred.

Further, SPCIC had restricted cash of $6.8 million and $13.8 million at September 30, 2017 and December 31, 2016, respectively, which was restricted to secure the reinsured claims losses of SPCIC under the historical automobile, general and professional liability and workers' compensation reinsurance programs.

Health Insurance

We offer our NET Services', certain WD Services' and corporate employees an option to participate in a self-funded health insurance program. The liability for the self-funded health plan of $2.4 million and $3.0 million as of September 30, 2017 and December 31, 2016, respectively, was recorded in "Reinsurance liability and related reserve" in our condensed consolidated balance sheets.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

There have been no material changes to the Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements discussion previously disclosed in our audited consolidated financial statements contained in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2016.

Forward-Looking Statements

This Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q contains certain statements that may be deemed "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 (the "Securities Act") and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), including statements related to the Company's strategies or expectations about revenues, liabilities, results of operations, cash flows, ability to fund operations, profitability, ability to meet financial covenants, contracts or market opportunities. The Company may also make forward-looking statements in other reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"), in materials delivered to stockholders and in press releases. In addition, the Company's representatives may from time to time make oral forward-looking statements. In certain cases, you may identify forward looking-statements by words such as "may", "will", "should", "could", "expect", "plan", "project", "intend", "anticipate", "believe", "seek", "estimate", "predict", "potential", "target", "forecast", "likely", the negative of such terms or comparable terminology. In addition, statements that are not historical statements of fact should also be considered forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements are based on the Company's current expectations, assumptions, estimates and projections about its business and industry, and involve risks, uncertainties and other factors that may cause actual events to be materially different from those expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. These risks and uncertainties include, but are not limited to, the risks disclosed in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2016 and our other filings with the SEC.

You are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date the statement was made. The Company is under no obligation to (and expressly disclaims any such obligation to) update any of the information in any forward-looking statement if such forward-looking statement later turns out to be inaccurate, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.

Item 3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk.

Foreign currency risk

As of September 30, 2017, we conducted business in eleven countries outside the U.S. As a result, our cash flows and earnings are subject to fluctuations due to changes in foreign currency exchange rates. We do not currently hedge against the possible impact of currency fluctuations. During YTD 2017 we generated $217.4 million of our net operating revenues from operations outside the U.S. As we expand further into international markets, we expect the risk from foreign currency exchange rates to increase.

A 10% adverse change in the foreign currency exchange rate from British Pounds to U.S. dollars would have a $14.4 million negative impact on consolidated revenue and a negligible impact on net income. A 10% adverse change in other foreign currency exchange rates would not have a significant impact on our financial results.

We assess the significance of foreign currency risk on a periodic basis and may implement strategies to manage such risk as we deem appropriate.

Item 4. Controls and Procedures.

(a) Evaluation of disclosure controls and procedures

The Company, under the supervision and with the participation of its management (including its principal executive officer and principal financial officer), evaluated the effectiveness of the design and operation of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures, as defined in Rule 13a-15(e) of the Exchange Act as of September 30, 2017. Based upon this evaluation, the Company's principal executive and financial officers have concluded that such disclosure controls and procedures were effective to provide reasonable assurance that (i) information required to be disclosed by the Company in the reports that it files or submits under the Exchange Act is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the SEC's rules and forms and (ii) information required to be disclosed by the Company in the reports that it files or submits under the Exchange Act is accumulated and communicated to the Company's management, including its principal executive and financial officers, or persons performing similar functions, as appropriate to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure.

(b) Changes in internal controls

The principal executive and financial officers also conducted an evaluation of whether any changes in the Company's internal control over financial reporting occurred during the quarter ended September 30, 2017 that have materially affected or which are reasonably likely to materially affect such control. Such officers have concluded that no such changes have occurred.

(c) Limitations on the effectiveness of controls

Because of its inherent limitations, internal control over financial reporting can provide only reasonable assurance with respect to financial statement preparation and presentation. The design of a control system must reflect the fact that there are resource constraints, and the benefits of controls must be considered relative to their costs. Because of the inherent limitations in a cost-effective control system, misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of effectiveness to future periods are subject to the risk that controls may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate. The Company conducts periodic evaluations of its internal controls to enhance, where necessary, its procedures and controls.

PART II—OTHER INFORMATION

Item 1. Legal Proceedings.

On June 15, 2015, a putative stockholder class action derivative complaint was filed in the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware (the “Court”), captioned Haverhill Retirement System v. Kerley et al., C.A. No. 11149-VCL. For further information on this legal proceeding, please see Item 3, Legal Proceedings, in the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2016, and Part II, Item 1, Legal Proceedings, in the Company’s Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the periods ended March 31, 2017 and June 30, 2017.

On September 28, 2017, the Court approved a proposed settlement agreement among the parties that provides for a settlement amount of $10.0 million less plaintiff’s legal fees and expenses (the “Settlement Amount”), with 75% of the Settlement Amount to be paid to the Company and 25% of the Settlement Amount to be paid to holders of the Company’s common stock other than certain excluded parties. The Company expects to receive a payment of approximately $5.0 million. As this amount is considered a gain contingency, the Company has not recorded a receivable for this amount as of September 30, 2017.

Item 1A. Risk Factors.

There have been no material changes from the risk factors disclosed in the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2016.

Item 2. Unregistered Sales of Equity Securities and Use of Proceeds.

Purchases under the common stock repurchase program may be made from time-to-time through a combination of open market repurchases (including Rule 10b5-1 plans), privately negotiated transactions, and accelerated share repurchase transactions, at the discretion of the Company's officers, and as permitted by securities laws, covenants under existing bank agreements, and other legal requirements.

Dividends

We have not paid any cash dividends on our common stock and currently do not expect to pay dividends on our common stock. In addition, our ability to pay dividends on our common stock is limited by the terms of our Credit Agreement and our preferred stock. The payment of future cash dividends, if any, will be reviewed periodically by the Board and will depend upon, among other things, our financial condition, funds from operations, the level of our capital and development expenditures, any restrictions imposed by present or future debt or equity instruments, and changes in federal tax policies, if any.
